J. B. GOODRICH, Ch'm. C. C.

TO THE POLLS!

Let every Union man be at the Polls on the SECOND TUESDAY IN OCTOBER.

No Election ever transpired that was of such vital importance to the AMERICAN PEOPLE, as the present. The Johnson men aver that there will be

ANOTHER BLOODY WAR

If we do not give them the GOVERNMENT.

We think a Republican success will prevent a war.

W. H. SUMPTION has sold his saddle and harness establishment to S. R. Bradbury, of Richmond. Mr. B. will soon remove to this place.

STOVES AND TINWARE at Fisher & Chaffee's Hardware Store, north side of the public square. n11-21.

Col. M. B. MILLER has disposed of his business house, on the north side of the public square, to John Davis.

For very cheap goods of all kinds, go to Routh & Bannister's.

NAMES GROW.—During the war we called the rebels "Johnnies," but since the Philadelphia Convention we call them Johnson men.

For high colors in ladies' dress goods, go to Routh & Bannister's.

CIRCUIT COURT is now in session—Colgrove on the Bench. There is a heavy docket.

SPLENDID silk finished drawers and undershirts at Routh & Bannister's.

UNION MEETING this Thursday night at Lock's Hall. General Stone and Colonel I. P. Gray will address the meeting. Let all come out. The Brass and String Bands will be present. Fire works after the speaking.

LADIES GIVE ATTENTION.—If we tell you of something that is of interest to you we know you will thank us. Well, we desire to say that J. A. Butterfield & Co.'s, music store at Indianapolis, is the house to buy musical instruments. They keep among others the celebrated Stock Piano, Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs, beside all other kinds of instruments in demand. Send your orders there, or go directly. They will be found at 22 West Washington street.

A BIG stock of new goods just received at Mayer's.

JOHN ROSS' fine brick business house is ready for the plasterers. The second story is for a hall. A dramatic corps has engaged it for the week of the Fair.

A VERY heavy stock of new goods just received at Routh & Bannister's.

MR. L. L. DAVIS and lady, are here on a bridal tour from Mankato, Minnesota.

SALT CREEK was on a bender last Tuesday. It was higher than it has been for ten years. It cut all kinds of pranks with the fences and other property of our peaceable and quiet citizens. As the Grand Jury is in session, we suggest that it be indicted for trespass.

THE heaviest fall of rain that we have had for years, fell here on Monday night and Tuesday last. If the rain was general, immense damage must be the result.

MR. REYNOLDS, of Hagerstown, a practicing attorney, is about to take up his residence in Winchester.

KILLED.—Mr. John Mills, who resided near Maxville, some six miles west of this place, was accidentally shot and killed on Saturday, the 14th inst., by Mr. Jacob Thornton, a young man in Mills' employ. It appears from the information we have received of this sad affair, that Thornton and Mills were together at the barn, and that young Thornton, by request of Mr. Mills, was going through the manual of arms, with a loaded musket, belonging to the latter, and the gun, by some means, was discharged, the contents entering the head of Mills, killing him almost instantly.

Mr. Mills leaves a wife and several children, besides many warm friends, who mourn his untimely death. Mr. Thornton, we are informed, is suffering great mental distress on account of his being the innocent cause of this sad catastrophe. Indeed, it is said that his mind is bordering upon distraction. This distressing affair should serve as a warning in future to all, as too much care can not be exercised in the handling of fire arms.

Mr. Mills was an honored member of the L. O. O. F., and he was buried on Sunday last according to the customary usages of that Order. The attendance at the funeral is said to have been the largest ever before witnessed in this part of the country.

If you wish clothing at cost, go to Mayer's cheap dry goods store.

COOKING STOVES.—We are using in our family a cooking stove which we purchased at the store of Fisher & Chaffee, and which, for cooking and baking purposes, we think has no superior in the town. They still have some of the same kind for sale.

BLANK NOTES.—Business men and others, wishing to procure a very neatly printed article of blank notes, are requested to call at the jewelry store of Sim. H. Lucas, post office room, and examine a lot which he has just received. They are bound in a substantial pasteboard covering, and are printed on a superior quality of paper.

SAD BUT TRUE.—"In the midst of life we are in death," says an old proverb, and we were never more impressed with the truth of this proverb than on Tuesday afternoon last, when a Justice of the Peace of our town passed our office, on his way to the country, to join a young couple in the holy bands of wedlock, and taking with him a Coffin!

SCHOOL BOOKS.—Sim. H. Lucas has, in connection with his jewelry store, a large stock of school books, embracing all the standard books now used in our schools; and being desirous to close out his stock now on hand, with a view of retiring from that branch of trade, he is selling school books at greatly reduced figures. Give him a call, at the Post-Office room.

BRADLEY'S elliptic duplex hoop skirts of the best quality, at Mayer's dry goods store.

Col. M. B. MILLER has purchased the lot of Kayser & Keller on which their shoe shop stands, on west side of the public square. The shop will be removed shortly to a lot on "shoemakers' row," on Meridian, north of Washington street. Col. M. intends building a brick business house on the Kayser & Keller lot.

ISAAC SHAW is erecting a shoe shop on "shoemakers' row."

NEW GROCERIES.—Way & Stakebake are receiving a splendid stock of groceries, direct from the city, which they propose to sell very cheap. We advise our friends to call and examine their new stock. The proof of the truth of a thing is trying, so we say go and try. You need not buy unless you wish.

ON THE SAME ROAD.—It is the pride of politicians to be able to say they are still walking in the old beaten track, advocating the same principles. Well if this is good for politicians it ought to be good for business men. So we say for Tripp & Laurence that they still sell splendid groceries at cheap prices, so go and see how cheap goods sell.

HO-A! HO-A!—Here's where I want to stop! This is where the farmer buys all his groceries! Well, then, that's the place for me. I always had a good feeling for Hiatt & Kinnear, and the fact that they were raised on a farm, makes me sympathize with them. You say they sell cheap. Well, that suits me. Honest men, did you say? That's still better. I'll trade there.

NEW STOCK OF QUEENSWARE.—Thomas & Son have just received a new stock of queensware, larger than heretofore kept by them. They invite every body to call and examine their stock and prices. They continue to keep a good assortment of groceries, with their heavy stock of confectionery, which we are authorized to say will be sold as cheap as any house in the town or county.

THE different classes of the M. E. Sabbath-school were re-arranged, and other important changes in the school were made on last Sabbath. The attendance generally is large, yet there is room for more. Parents, send in your children.

MORRISTOWN.—We visited this place last week, and were greatly surprised to find our friend, Henry Jacobs, in the dry goods, grocery and boot and shoe trade. We have the assurance of Mr. Jacobs that he intends to sell a little cheaper than any of his neighbors. We recommend him to all who wish cheap goods.

New goods at Routh & Bannister's.

The Picnic.

The Temperance Picnic at Farmland, on Saturday last, was a very pleasant affair, and passed off in the most agreeable and satisfactory manner. Mr. Stagg, of Indianapolis, Dr. N. Simmons and Capt. W. D. Stone, of Union City, were the speakers, and H. D. Huffman, Chaplain. The addresses were all good, and the only objection we had to the whole day's proceedings was the state of the atmosphere, which was a little too cool to be pleasant in the shade, and there were not enough people in attendance, which was probably owing to two causes—the busy season, and want of timely notice to the people in some conspicuous manner.

SEVERAL communications were left over till next week, for want of room.

CARPETS AND FURNISHING GOODS.—We take great pleasure in referring our readers to the house of Van Ausdall, Harmon & Co., of Dayton, Ohio. They have just received one of the largest and most complete stocks of carpets and furnishing goods ever offered in Dayton. The stock consists of the finest English and American patterns. Mattings, rugs, wall papers, window papers, sheeting and pillow casings, Irish linens, window shades, table and piano covers, carpet warps, cotton yarns, etc.

These goods will be sold at New York prices. Be sure to call at this house when you visit Dayton. They can be found on Main street. We would refer to their new advertisement inserted to-day.

PROTECTED MEETING.—There will be preaching at W. E. Wilmore's on Friday evening the 28th of the present month, (September,) and will continue throughout the ensuing Saturday and Sabbath, at the Brick School house near Ed. Wright's. Elder Dean, Rupe and Hodges, have promised to be present.

STATIONERY.—J. E. Williamson has just received at the Post-office a complete stock of stationery, etc. His stock embraces all articles in that department of trade. Envelopes of all sizes, colors and styles; writing paper of every grade and variety, and, in fact, he has an excellent assortment of every thing in that line, to which the attention of the public is invited. He also has received, direct from the publishers, a good assortment of novels, novelettes, magazines, and a variety of other literary and miscellaneous reading matter, varying in price from ten cents to two dollars each.

THE wet season should be sufficient to make every man in favor of underdraining his land or town lot. It is like bread cast upon waters to be gathered many days hence; and those who try it will reap a rich reward. We advise our readers to go and get some of the brick tiling, of Martin, Souders & Co., and try it.

WE are all a band of brothers, marching to W. R. Way & Co.'s grocery to get some of his cheap goods. That is a mighty good place to go and get what you want, for they keep such articles there. We have several times tried it ourselves when we had money, which, by the way, is an awful good friend of ours, and we have learned by experience that he has good credit at Way's; that he can get goods cheaper than any thing else. Go and try it.

LYNN, September 12, 1866.
James G. Brice, Esq., paid our town a visit Wednesday last, stopping over night. Mr. B. was recently from Cincinnati, and has been rusticated in the country.

The walls of the new school-house are up, and the roof is being put on. The house will be finished in time for the winter school.

LYNN has a good Sabbath-school, well organized with a faithful, efficient corps of teachers, male and female. No celebration is talked of, but something of the kind will most likely take place before the season for such occasions has passed.

R. Newbern has opened a new harness shop here.

An accident occurred here on Tuesday last to a little daughter of Mrs. Monteith. She playfully grabbed at a pitchfork held by her sister, and ran one of the sharp prongs through her hand, inflicting a severe wound.

Mr. DeGraff, railroad contractor, while at Richmond on Monday last, was seized with a severe attack of cholera, and slight hopes were, at last accounts, entertained of his recovery.

Capt. May was in our town one day last week. The Captain is a true Union man, and rather than the South shall rule this Government and trample on Union men, he is ready to shoulder his musket and take the field again.

M. A. Reeder was in town Thursday last, attending to business connected with his contract. He is making preparations for getting out a large number of ties in this vicinity.

It has rained the most of the week, delaying the farmers in their work of seeding.

Business has been quite brisk the two past weeks. One firm, in particular, made sales in one day amounting to $300. Pretty good for Lynn. We are coming out of the wilderness. Even now we, in imagination, see the smoke and catch the sound of approaching trains. These having arrived in due time, will give to our town a new impetus, both in growth and business, that will entitle it to a place in the galaxy on old Randolph's banner.
